

DECEMBER 2017

U/ID 14807/UCQE

---

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

PART A — (10 × 2 = 20 marks)

Answer ALL questions each in 50 words.

1. Define Sociology in Medicine.
2. What do you know about Labeling approach to Health?
3. What is depression?
4. Mention any features of hopelessness.
5. What is meant by Byssinosis?
6. Define Cardiomyopathy.
7. Describe Professionalization.
8. What is the objective of Sociology of Health?
9. Define Sex Education.
10. What is the purpose of Social Gerontology?

PART B — (5 × 6 = 30 marks)

Answer ALL questions each in 250 words.

11. (a) List out the nature of Medical Sociology.

Or

- (b) What is the difference between Sociology of Medicine and Sociology in Medicine?

12. (a) Narrate the disadvantages of illness.

Or

- (b) Describe Parsons' role theory in connection with health interaction.

13. (a) Examine preventive measures of occupational diseases.

Or

- (b) Highlight the factors determine obesity.

14. (a) Analyze the professionalization of physician.

Or

- (b) Write a note on cost of hospitalization.

15. (a) What are the salient features of health policy of India?

Or

- (b) List out the health problems of aged people.

PART C — (5 × 10 = 50 marks)

Answer ALL questions each in 500 words.

16. (a) Outline the historical development of Medical Sociology in the West.

Or

- (b) Discuss the social perspectives of health and health care.

17. (a) Analyse the social and psychological factors in illness.

Or

- (b) Examine the contributions of Sociology to health.

18. (a) Discuss the socio-cultural factors bearing on health in India.

Or

- (b) Explain the causes for Tuberculosis and suggest suitable measures to control the same.

19. (a) List out the professional qualities of physician.

Or

(b) Analyse the essential structure and functions of a hospital.

20. (a) Examine the relevance of Sex Education in India.

Or

(b) Explain the preventive hygienic habits.

---